SPECIAL INTERESTS IN ACTION: WINE APPRECIATION

On December 15 the Wine Appreciation Group welcomed in the holiday season at the Cavalieri Hilton with a POP - yes, it was our turn to taste and learn about spumante. Our guest wine producers were Pino Zardetto with his Zardetto Brut and Maurizio Zannella with his Cà del Bosco Franciacorta Pinot. Our special guest was Burton Anderson, author of "Vino," the highly acclaimed guide to Italian wine. Mr. Anderson, who is currently writing a pocket guide to wine, helped us along the path to a better understanding of spumante, discussing in detail the wines of Mssrs. Zardetto and Zanella.

Congratulations to our raffle winner, Reimer Duerr, who will no doubt put into practice what he has learned with his prize - 19 bottles of wine! One of each of the wines tasted up to date.

A big thank you to the Hotel Hilton for the delicious hors d'oeuvres and a brindisi to all those present who helped make the evening so special.
